Medical Student Competition Entry Form

Please submit ONE FORM per entry

The Association of Palliative Medicine Juniors' Conference 2019 is welcoming submissions for the Medical Students' Competition. The winning entries will be given a free ticket to the APMJ Conference 2019, as well as having their piece shared on the day of the conference, and published on the APM Blog.

Deadline: 11th October 2019

Please submit entries to conference.apmj@gmail.com with the information below.

The Competition:

Medical students are invited to write a creative piece on the theme of 'Symptoms in Palliative Care'. Submissions can be written in the form of a short story, essay, poem, or piece of artwork. (Please note, max word counts are 700 for short story and essay, and 36 lines for poems).

Name:
Medical School:
Title of Submission:
Email:

Thank you very much for your entry. We will be in touch with the outcome.
The APMJ Conference 2019 Committee