

Beyond Advanced Communication Skills

LOROS Hospice Groby Road, Leicester

6pm Wednesday 11th – 2pm Friday 13th October 2017

Conversation analysis

What does empathy look like?

Talking with patients and families about deterioration and dying

Real Talk education resources

Reflection on learning

The palliative care consultation method

How can drama skills help communication?

Bespoke residential workshop designed to explore doctor-patient communication and consultations in palliative care, relevant for physicians including registrars, consultants, staff grade and associate specialists working in palliative medicine.

We are seeking participants who will contribute fully to evaluation of this novel course in communication in palliative medicine and assess its value to specialty training and CPD.

Cost:

£208 - Includes 2 night's accommodation & all meals or £90 - Course & meals only

Faculty Team:

Dr Ruth Parry, Becky Whittaker, Dr Christina Faull & Dr Sarah Hamlyn

For more information contact Christina Faull at education@loros.co.uk

RCP approval applied for