About the Committee

The APM Clinical Quality Committee (4 – 8 core membership) is an advisory committee to the Executive Board of the APM, on clinical matters. The Committee advises the Council and supports the work of the APM on / by:

- the processes and standards of appraisal and revalidation
- the Association's programme of benchmarking, audit and data gathering
- monitoring intelligence relating to outcomes in Palliative Medicine

About the Role

Key Accountabilities and Areas of Responsibility

- Encourage the use of data, such as dependency scores and outcome measures, to improve the quality of medical practice and explore their role in benchmarking the promotion of quality improvement activities including audit and service evaluation such as FAMCARE and the audit /QiP prize.
- share intelligence relating to in Palliative Care and Medicine across the membership such as relevant national reports, NICE guidelines, Cochrane reviews etc.
- support consultants who are young in post (first 5 years), that is, within the committee's remit.
- support processes and standards of medical appraisal and revalidation and will liaise with appropriate bodies including RCP, NHS England and Hospice UK.

The committee serves as a reference source to the Executive, and in partnership with other APM committees and other organisations, co-ordinates quality and effectiveness, and all related matters.

Time Commitment

- the workload of the Committee varies throughout the year depending on both Committee priorities and national topical issues but should not be onerous
- frequency of meetings: 4 times per year
- the Committee can have a maximum of 1 face to face meeting per year

Remuneration and Expenses

- this is a non-remunerated role
- reasonable expenses, in line with the APM Expenses Policy, are paid for attendance at meetings related to the work of the Committee
