

REPORT AND OVERVIEW OF THE PALLIATIVE MEDICINE WORKFORCE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

This document is awaiting final approval.

The final document should be available by mid-April 2019.

It will contain approximately 22 pages.

Produced by Workforce Committee of APM
March 2019

Table of Contents

1. OVERVIEW OF THE PALLIATIVE MEDICINE WORKFORCE

- 1.1 Introduction
- 1.2 Background to specialty-specific reviews
- 1.3 Data used and limitations
- 1.4 Overview of the palliative medicine workforce in the UK
 - 1.4.1 The context of palliative medicine in the UK Health Service
 - 1.4.2 Model of service delivery

2. CURRENT WORKFORCE

- 2.1 Introduction
- 2.2 Data analysis
- 2.3 Participation of specialist palliative care consultants in the UK healthcare system
 - 2.3.1 Number of consultant posts
 - 2.3.2 Workforce planning analysis and informatics
 - 2.3.3 Gender and working patterns
 - 2.3.4 Permanent/temporary status of consultant contract
 - 2.3.5 Age profile and retirement
- 2.4 Participation of specialist palliative care trainees in the UK healthcare system
 - 2.4.1 Training programme
 - 2.4.2 Number of trainees
 - 2.4.3 Workforce planning analysis and informatics
 - 2.4.4 Gender and working patterns
 - 2.4.5 Age profile and expected completion of training
- 2.5 Participation of SAS doctors in the UK healthcare system
 - 2.5.1 Number of SAS doctors
 - 2.5.2 Working patterns
 - 2.5.3 Workforce planning analysis and informatics
- 2.6 Participation of non-specialty training grade posts

3. ESTIMATION OF THE CURRENT UNDERSUPPLY OF DOCTORS IN THE PALLIATIVE MEDICINE WORKFORCE

- 3.1 Geographical differences across the UK
- 3.2 Consultant vacancies and output of CCTs
- 3.3 Key drivers of change to the future of the palliative medicine workforce
 - 3.3.1 Changes in population health care needs
 - 3.3.2 Shape of Training
 - 3.3.3 New pattern of working and seven day working

4. VIEWS ON PALLIATIVE MEDICINE WORKFORCE PLANNING

- 4.1 Updating medical workforce recommendations
- 4.2 Providing seven day working
- 4.3 Growing the contribution of SAS doctors to the workforce
- 4.4 Influencing retirement age
- 4.5 Increasing CCT output
- 4.6 Supporting Nursing workforce

5. THE PALLIATIVE MEDICINE WORKFORCE IN IRELAND AND AUSTRALIA

- 5.1 Ireland
- 5.2 Australia

6. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY AND RECOMMENDATIONS