Wales Representative

The vision for the APM is to create a future where all people with life-limiting and life-threatening illnesses live as well as possible for the duration of their natural lives and in which no one need die in distress or discomfort for lack of access to the best palliative care. We promote professional development, societal debate and advocate with and on behalf of all those who are involved in palliative medicine. One of our key drives is to work with partners, colleagues and organisations across multiple sectors to provide excellent multidisciplinary care for patients and those important to them, including the affiliation of those health care providers core to our patients care. This needs us to be well governed and financially robust.

We are seeking a Wales Representative who shares our commitment to these values and to the wellbeing of the people we support and has financial skills, good strategic awareness, and an understanding of the context in which the APM operates (or a willingness to learn more).
