

PALLIATIVE CARE: LOOKING THROUGH A DIFFERENT LENS

2ND & 3RD SEPTEMBER 2024

JOHN MCINTYRE CONFERENCE CENTRE

EDINBURGH, EH16 5AY

MONDAY 2ND SEPTEMBER 2024

PLENARY SESSIONS

9am - 9.30am - Registration

9.30am - Welcome & Introduction

9.30am - 10.30am - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Integrating palliative care into the management of advanced liver disease

Presenter: Dr Ben Hudson MD, MRCP (Gastro)

Consultant Hepatologist

Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital

10.30am - 11.00am - Coffee Break

11.00am - 12pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Relationship between specialist palliative care team input and place of death in MND

Presenter: Dr Nat Quail

Registrar in infectious diseases and microbiology, West of Scotland

Honorary Clinical Lecturer at the University of Glasgow

12pm - 1pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Truth with Kindness - tender conversations about the end of life

Presenter: Dr Kathryn Mannix

Author and Campaigner, retired consultant in palliative medicine

1pm - 2pm - Lunch

PARALLEL WORKSHOPS (coffee break will be 3pm-3.15pm)

SESSION 1

SESSION 2

2pm - 3pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre East

Title: "Palliative Care Needs Round: an evidence based solution to equitable dying in care homes"

Presenter: Prof Liz Forbat

Research Psychologist, University of Stirling and Family Systemic Psychotherapist in Independent Practice

3.15pm - 4.15pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre East

Title: "Palliative Care Needs Round: an evidence based solution to equitable dying in care homes"

Presenter: Prof Liz Forbat

Research Psychologist, University of Stirling and Family Systemic Psychotherapist in Independent Practice

2pm—3pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre West

Title: "Telling dilemmas,- common ethical challenges in practical palliative care"

Presenter: Prof Max Watson

Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Western Trust

Visiting Professor, St John's Bangalore

Honorary Consultant, Princess Alice Hospice, Esher

3.15pm - 4.15pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre West

Title: "Telling dilemmas,- common ethical challenges in practical palliative care"

Presenter: Prof Max Watson

Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Western Trust

Visiting Professor, St John's Bangalore

Honorary Consultant, Princess Alice Hospice, Esher

2pm—3pm—Prestonfield Room

Oral Presentations of selected abstracts

3.15pm—4.15pm—Prestonfield Room

Oral Presentations of selected abstracts

4.15pm - 5.15pm - Poster Viewing (refreshments available)

The organiser of the conference reserves the right to change the programme in unforeseen circumstances.

The meeting will be sponsored by the pharmaceutical industry solely by the provision of exhibition stands with no input into choice of venue or other activities at the meeting.

Please note; An Administration fee of £40 will be payable for cancellations before

Monday 17th of June 2024. Thereafter cancellations will not be refunded.

PALLIATIVE CARE: LOOKING THROUGH A DIFFERENT LENS

2ND & 3RD SEPTEMBER 2024

JOHN MCINTYRE CONFERENCE CENTRE ,

EDINBURGH, EH15 6AY

TUESDAY 3RD SEPTEMBER 2024

PLENARY SESSIONS

9am - 9.30am - Registration

9.30am - Welcome & Introduction

9.30am - 10.30am - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: "Simply the best – or are we? Time to switch the lens"

Presenter: Prof Sam H Ahmedzai FRCP FFPMRCA

Emeritus Professor, The University of Sheffield, Editor-in-Chief of Current Opinion in Supportive Care in Cancer

Patron of UK Association for Supportive Care in Cancer, Patron of Shaheen Project for Improving Palliative Care in Pakistan

Honorary Vice-President, Society for Companion Animal Studies

10.30am - 11.00am - Coffee Break

11.00am - 12pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Thinking Beyond the Dichotomy

Presenter: Dr Jennifer Vidrine

Consultant in Palliative & Supportive Care

Northern Centre for Cancer Care, Freeman Hospital

12pm —1pm —Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Assisted Dying: A New Dying Aesthetic

Presenter: Dr Naomi Richards

Senior Lecturer in Social Science Director, Glasgow End of Life Studies Group, School of Social & Environmental

Sustainability, University of Glasgow

1pm - 2pm - Lunch

PLENARY SESSIONS

2pm - 3pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: The lived experience of home care workers caring for people with palliative and end of life care needs at home - a call for change

Presenter: Dr Lyndsay Cardwell

Community Lead Nurse

Strathcarron Hospice

3pm - 3.15pm - Coffee Break

3:15pm —4:15pm - Pentland Lecture Theatre

Title: Death belongs to the Community

Presenter: Cormac Russell

Founding Director of Nurture Development and a member of the

Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD) Institute, at DePaul University, Chicago

The organiser of the conference reserves the right to change the programme in unforeseen circumstances.

The meeting will be sponsored by the pharmaceutical industry solely by the provision of exhibition stands with no input into choice of venue or other activities at the meeting.

Please note; An Administration fee of £40 will be payable for cancellations before

Monday 17th of June 2024. Thereafter cancellations will not be refunded.