APM Trainees Committee

The APM trainees are looking for an Education and Training representative to join our committee. This is an opportunity to represent trainees nationally and develop management and leadership experience.

Please return your completed nomination form and personal statement to the APM Secretariat at office@compleat-online.co.uk and get in touch if you would like further information about the role.

About the Role – Education and Training Representative

Contribution to the wider work of the APM Trainees committee including

- Attendance at trainees' committee meetings (up to 6 meetings per year)
- Preparation of Education report for trainees' committee meetings, outlining: Forthcoming events by year; Summary of other work of education committee; Summary of updates from education committee (e.g. strategic planning, organisational updates, etc)
- Involvement in activities to involve and promote the work of the APM to trainees

APM Trainee Study Days

- Work with groups within the APM to design and deliver national study days, usually 3-4 events per annum with opportunities to personally develop and influence this programme

Participant in the APM Education & Training Committee

- Liaise with the Education Committee chair regarding attendance at committee meetings and contribute to relevant aspects of the work of the Education Committee, including co-ordinating trainees' session of APM events where relevant
- Reporting back to Trainees' Committee on work of the Education Committee and vice versa

Palliative Care Congress (PCC) organising committee

- Two year commitment to be a member of the PCC organising committee
- Next appointment will be for the organising committee of the PCC 2027/2028

The Association for Palliative Medicine (APM) is committed to delivering a service for its members where Equality, Diversity and Inclusivity is embraced by everyone. For APM, promoting equality, inclusion and human rights is integral to its values and delivery of organisational service. APM will take every opportunity to strengthen its approach to equality and diversity in the design, delivery and review of its processes.
